Station Madras, Dated the 21st June 1938.

From (Name) F. Sayers, Esquire, C.I.E.,

(Designation) Inspector-General of Police, Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

HOME Department.

Sir,

Forwarded.

2. This Sub-Inspector was dismissed for obvious dealings in a most underhand manner in motor bus mamools, i.e., for gross corruption. He was a man with every advantage, being a graduate, for advancement in the Department. He prostituted his position and forfeited all claims to sympathy of any kind.

3 I cannot recommend any gratuity or compassionate pension.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Home Department. MADRAS.

Through

The Inspector General of Police

MADRAS.

Sir,

I was an humble subordinate of the police department, and have put in 11½ years of service as sub-inspector in Bellary District. During my service I possessed a clean defaulter sheet besides earning several rewards and Good Service Entries in recognition of my hard, honest and sincere work.

2. Rule 353 of the Civil Service Regulations permitted the grant of a compassionate allowance, and hence I submitted a petition for the same on 8-10-37, addressed to the Inspector-General of police, through the District Superintendent of Police, Bellary, in compliance with Rule 907 (a) of the said civil service regulations. A copy of the petition is submitted herewith for kind perusal. ANNEXURE ... (A).

3. To my added misfortune, the Inspector-General in his proceedings dated F.O.C 1159/37 pen dated 16-2-38, communicated to me on 5-4-38, an endorsement to the effect, 'I do not consider this a case for any compassionate allowance'. A copy of the said orders is attached herewith. ANNEXURE ... (B).

4. Rule 911(a) of the civil service regulations states that the officer who submits the application should verify on the application whether the character, conduct, and the past services of the applicant are such as to entitle him to the favourable consideration of the Government. The Government will be pleased to see that the District Superintendent of

Police, Bellary, who forwarded my petition, has made detailed enquiries and has submitted a favourable report as to my character, conduct and the circumstances which render the grant of an allowance deserving in my case, for the kind consideration by the Government. The endorsement of the Inspector-General of Police Communicated to me shows that my humble petition was not favoured at least by forwarding it to the Government, the authority concerned for passing orders on the same.

5. My good record of service has been borne testimony to by the several District officers who dealt with my case previously. The report of the officers on my petition dated 8-10-37, Annexure. (A) will confirm the same.

6. I therefore beg to request, that the petition for compassionate allowance submitted to the Inspector-General of Police referred to above may kindly be called for with all the reports of the officers thereon, and justice meted out to me by sanctioning the allowance eligible, in view of the special considerations of my hard, honest and devoted service to the Government for 11¼ years, and the peculiar circumstances which led to the sudden dismissal from service narrated in Annexure A., taking into consideration the opinion of the local officers who are in a position to know everything directly about me.

7. For this act of mercy, kindness, justice and generosity, I shall in duty bound ever pray.

Bellary.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

S. Rajangam

ANNEXURE (A).

Bellary,
Dated 8th October 1937.

To

The Inspector-General of Police,

MADRAS.

Through

The District Superintendent of Police,

BELLARY.

The humble petition of S. Rajangam, late Sub-Inspector of Police, Gowl Bazaar Station, Bellary District, beseeching the grant of compassionate allowances under Article 353 of the Civil Services Regulations

MOST RESPECTFULLY SHOWETH:--

1. That the petitioner was the first graduate in Arts that applied for the post of a Sub-Inspector of Police in Bellary District, and was enlisted to that post as and from 1st November 1923.

2. That since his enlistment, the petitioner had a continued good record of work and had discharged his duties faithfully and obediently in hopes of getting a high preferment in service.

(a) While under training in the Provincial Training School, he bore the reputation of being good all round.

(b) His postings while in the district, were confined to important stations like Bellary Cuaba, Hospet Town, and Adoni Town.

(c) He has earned 17 Good Service Entries and Rewards.

(d) But for a warning, for a general neglect of station work early in his service, in 1926, he has a clean defaulter sheet to his credit.

(e) He earned a double promotion from the V to III grade in 1928.

(f) In 1929 he was the chosen Sub-Inspector, to lead a contingent of men, from Bellary District, for His

His Excellency the Viceroy's bandobust duty at Madras.

(g) In 1930 he acted as an Inspector of Police.

(h) In 1931 he was the Sub-Inspector selected as competent for being trained at Madras for the District Intelligence Bureau, as per Circular of the Inspector-General of Police, and was so trained.

3. That to the misfortunes of your petitioner, he was in 1934 TEMPORARILY reduced from the 3rd to 4th grade of Sub-Inspector on an alternative charge (Proceedings of the Deputy Inspector-General of Police, Central Range C.A.84/34 dated 13-12-1934) and that the said reduction was enhanced to dismissal on an appeal by the petitioner by the Inspector-General of Police in F.O.C.385/P.R. dated 1[illegible]-4-1935. The petitioner was again unfortunate that the Madras Government did not interfere to the benefit of the petitioner on his Memorial for merciful consideration of his case. The petitioner most respectfully ventures to submit that he has thus been reduced to utter penury for his VICARIOUS responsibility for the indiscipline in the station of which he was then in charge.

4. That the petitioner is now burdened with a large family of 7 young children. Since his dismissal he has not been able to get into any stable employment, mainly because of the stigma of dismissal attached to his name.

5. That your petitioner does not own any immoveable property. Regarding moveable property his all consists of Rs. 1000/- in Hospet Co-Operative Bank and Rs. 380/- in Postal Savings Bank account. Early in his service, in 1927, he had insured for Rs. 2000/- in the Postal Life Insurance. As your petitioner could not forego his previous contributions for 8 years, he is constrained to keep the policy alive by monthly payments of Rs. 7/- with great difficulty. The policy expires 10 years hence, i.e. in 1949, and your petitioner has to find means for Rs. 1000/- more, at the rate of Rs. 84/- per year, before he could get the insured amount of Rs. 2000/-.

6. That your petitioner submits, he has put in 11½ years of service in the department. In view of the special considerations of his unblemished service, as enumerated in paragraph 2 supra and of his big family environments, he earnestly beseeches and implores that a monthly compassionate allowance of Rs. 22/- permissible under Article 353 of the Civil Services Regulations, may kindly be sanctioned to afford relief to an unfortunate subordinate who had done devoted service to the Government. Your petitioner, will also esteem it a boon if his first default in his service, for which he was only vicariously held responsible, could be condoned and an opportunity given to vindicate, even by way of re-enlistment if possible.

For this act of kindness, justice, generosity and mercy, your petitioner, will, as in duty bound, ever pray for the rest of his life.

Rajangam

Rajangam, Mr. S. Late Sub-Inspector of Police — Bellary district — Compassionate allowance.

From the Dy. of Police RC. No. 715/Pen/38 dated 21.6.1938

Mr. S. Rajangam, late Sub-Inspector of Police, Bellary district, has applied for a compassionate allowance under Art. 353 C.S.R. The facts of the petitioner's case are set out in the notes on pays. 10-13 of Go. R. No. 715 Home dated 11.8.1937. The petn's request is one for consideration in the Finance Department. The Dy. of Police does not recommend any gratuity or compassionate pension. For orders whether this Department may agree with the Dy. The file may be transferred to Finance after orders are passed.

Fin.(Pen)Dept.

*pp3-4 C.F. The case deals with the petition from Sri S. Rajangam, late Sub-Inspector of Police, Bellary Dt. for the grant of a compassionate allowance under Art. 353 of the C.S.R.

2. The petitioner entered service as Sub-Inspector of Police, V Grade in 1923 and para 1 p b of G.O 655 Pub(Police) 6-12-35 (E) was dismissed from service by the I.G. of Police § Copy at pp 31-33 ibid in his order F.O.C No. 335/P.R of 35 dated 11.4.1935. His appeal to the Govt. against the order of the I.G dismissing him from service was pp 47-48 " rejected in G.O.No: 655 Public (Police) dated 6.12.35. √ of X on pp 12-13 of (Z) All his subsequent petitions for reconsideration of the order of dismissal were turned down. Attention is invited to notes on pp.10-13 of G.O. No. R. 715 Home d. 11.8.1937 in which the history of the petitioner's case was summarised for the (Z) Hon'ble the Prime Minister, and the H.P.M's minute (Z) on pp 13-14 of G.O. ibid. After an examination of the facts on record H.P.M has recorded that the petitioner was guilty of exactions pp 13-14 of (Z) from bus drivers and that the station constables were organised systematically to this end. Accordingly p.15 of (Z) the petitioner was informed that the Govt. saw no reason to reconsider the orders in G.O.No. 655 (E) Public (Police) d. 6.12.35.

3. In the present petition, the petitioner 4 para 6 on p 3 C.F. requests that he may be granted the allowan to which he is eligible under Art. 353 of the C.S.R. in view of his service of 11½ years. Under Art. 353 C.S.R. no pension may be granted to an officer dismissed or removed for misconduct insolvency or inefficiency; but to officers so removed compassionate allowance may be granted when they are deserving of special consideration; provided that the allowance granted to any officer shall not exceed two-thirds of the pension which would have been admissible to him if he had retired on medical certificate Submitted that it is not usual to grant a compassionate allowance under the above provisions in cases involving moral turpitude and the question whether a compassionate allowance should be given in any particular case is considered on its merits. The I. G. of Police the sub-Inspector was dismissed for gross corruption and says that he cannot recommend any gratuity or compassionate pension to the petitioner. He does not recommend a gratuity or compassionate pension. In view of the remarks contained in para: 2 of the I.G's Endt. on p. 1 ante and the minute already recorded by H.E.M. on pp. 13-14 of G.O. No. R. 715 Home dt. 11.8.1937, it is submitted that the petition for compassionate allowance may be rejected. A draft order accordingly is submitted.
